LIST OF STUDIES IN THE SEMINARY.

FIRST YEAR.

Original Languages of Scripture—Sacred Chronology—Sacred Geography—Biblical and Profane History connected—Jewish Antiquities—The Scriptures in the English Translation—Exegetical Theology.

SECOND YEAR.

Biblical Criticism—Didactick Theology and Ecclesiastical History.

THIRD YEAR.

Didactick Theology continued—Polemick Theology—Ecclesiastical History continued—Church Government—Composition and delivery of Sermons—Pastoral care.

N. B. As the course above stated always commences in the fall, that is, of course, considered the most favourable time for Students to enter the Seminary. This accounts for the small number that entered the Spring of the present year.

There are two vacations in the Seminary, of six weeks continuance each: The first commencing on the Wednesday preceding the third Thursday of May, and the second, on the last Wednesday of September, in each year.
